

Ethics.

Case study

Administrative situation.

As a civil servant how you act

(a) Understanding the sit^y.

(a) Approach:

(i) Structured manner or not.

(b) Administrative feasibility:

(i) Policy making is not the Jurisdiction of civil servants

→ Ideal things without understanding the administrative feasibility.

→ Course of action. ←

Stakeholders

Inform the family

* Directly effected.

* Indirectly Impacted

leader

* UPSC

* family

* Society

how will your actions
impact the society

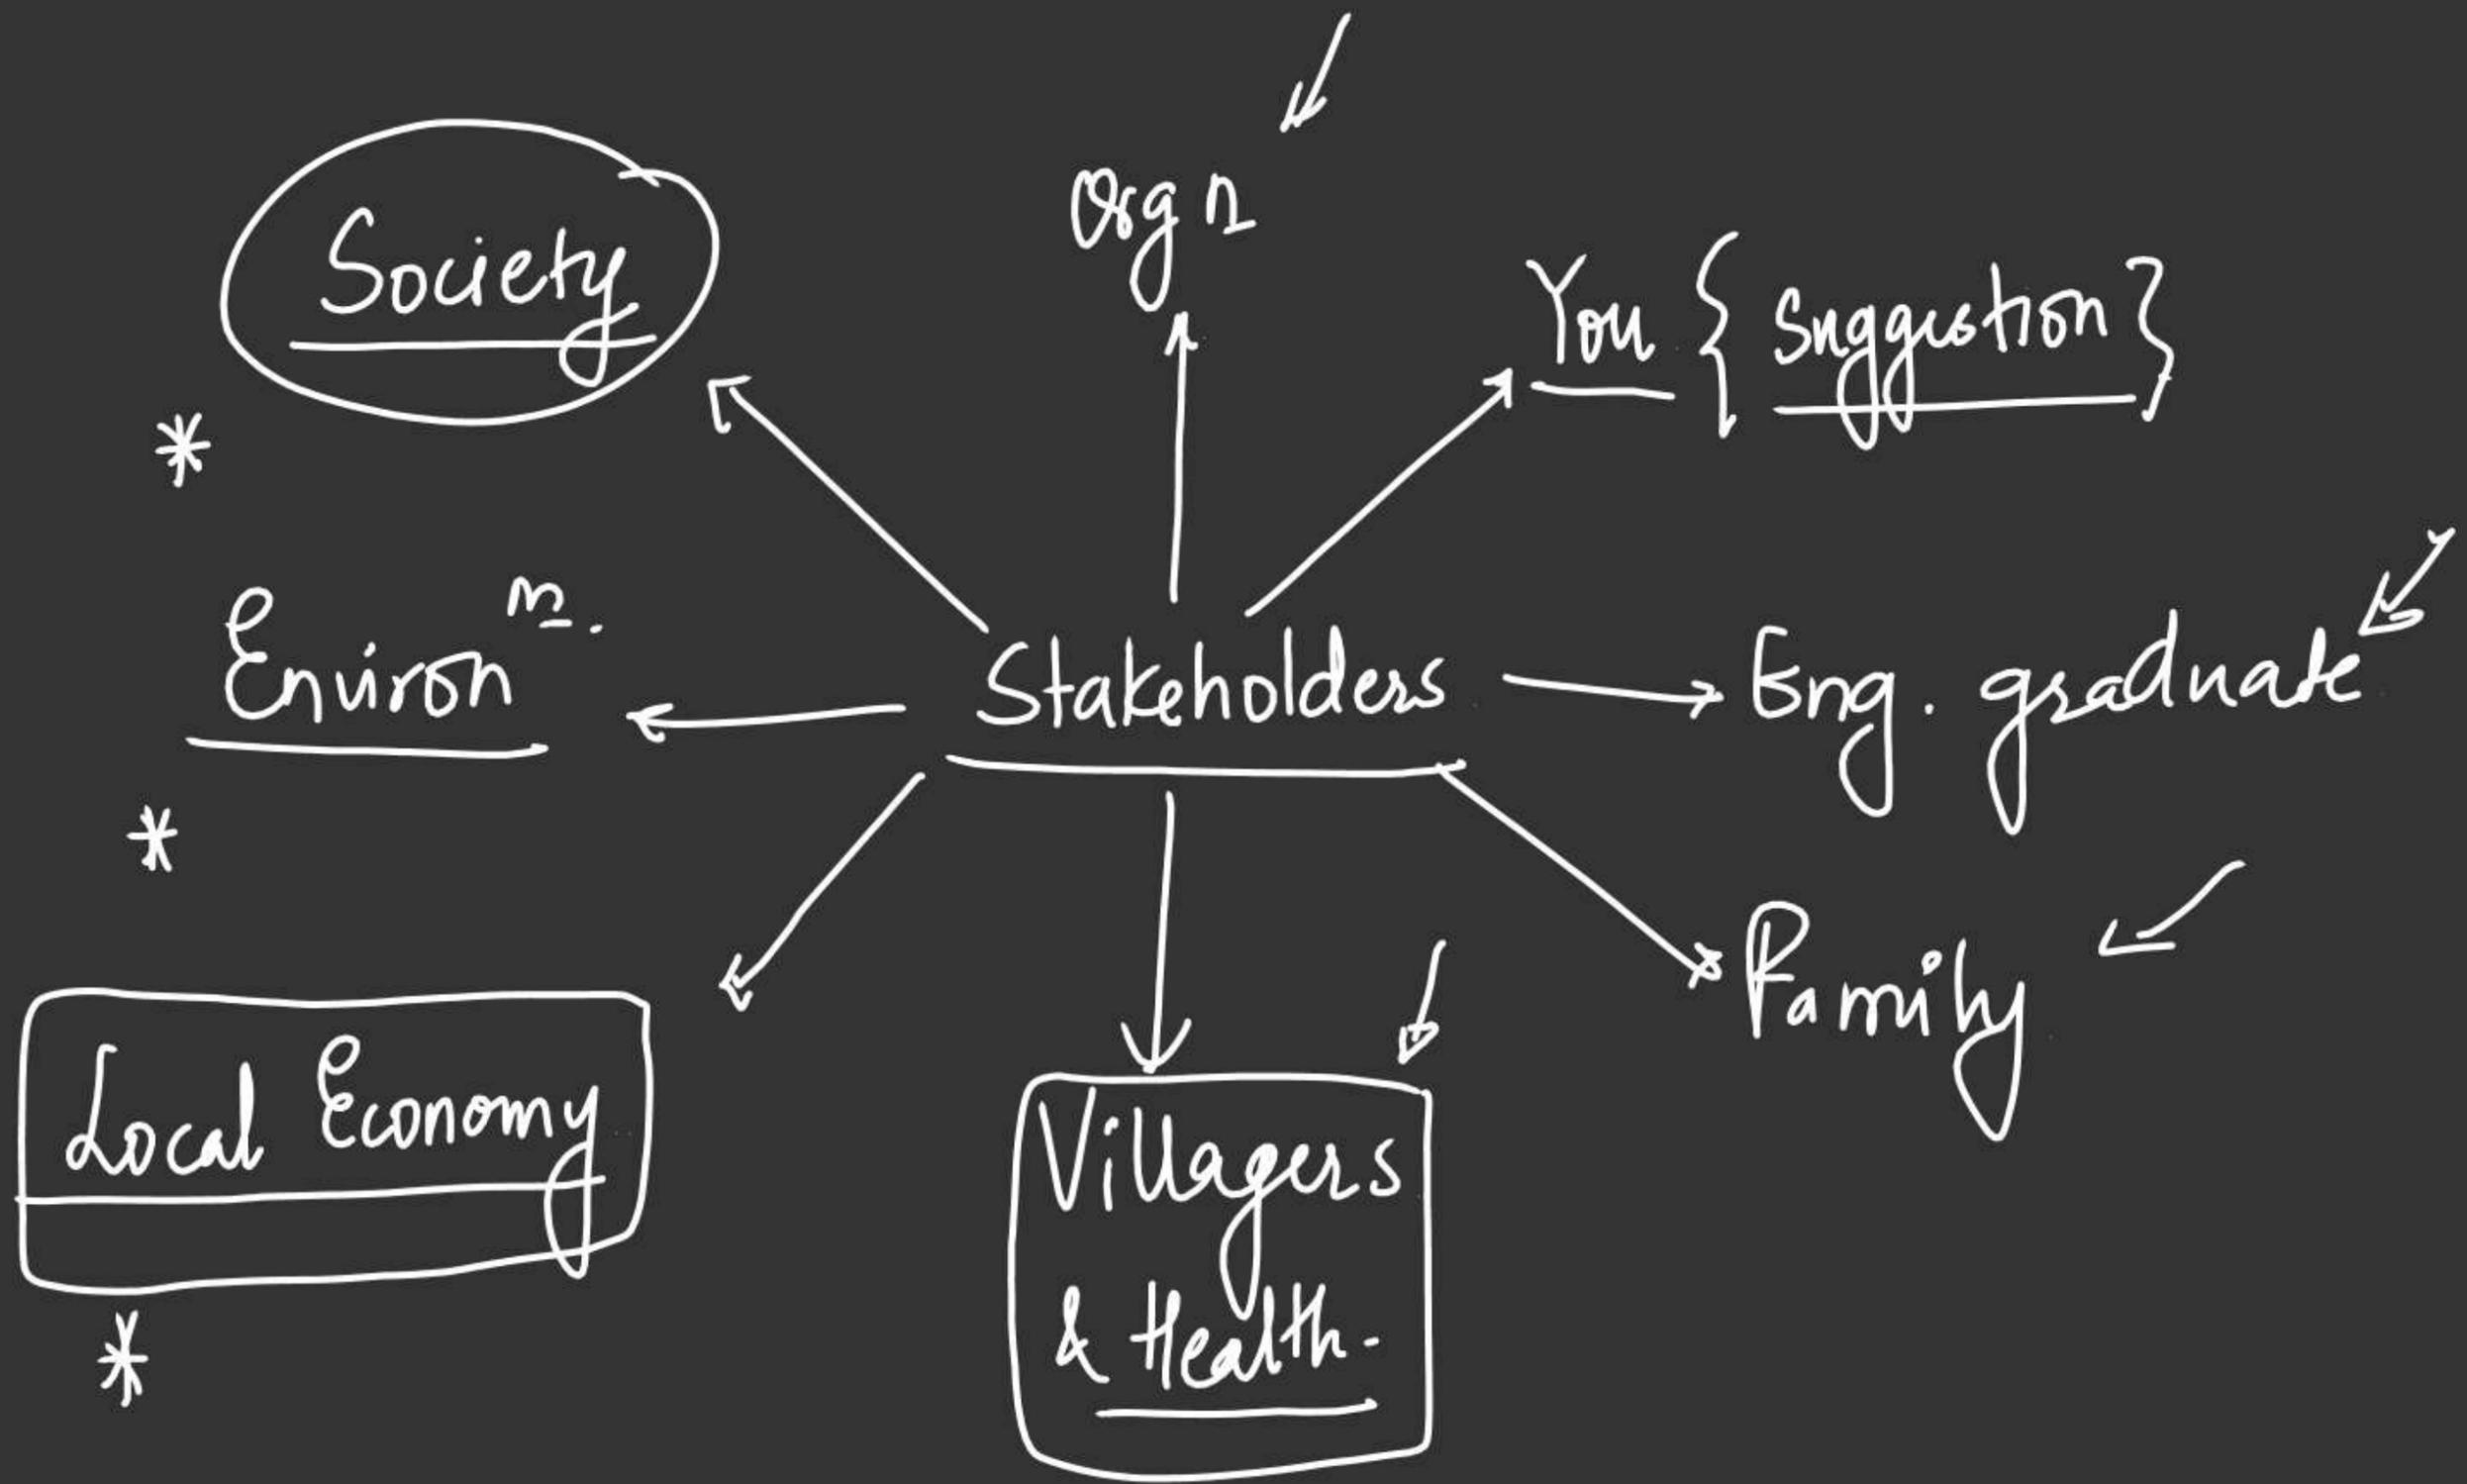

Case study - 1

Subject matter:

* Envⁿ concerns

* Unsustainable envⁿal practises adopted by Companies where they are prioritising profit over interest of the people { Profiteering }

* Eng. graduate, is in a dilemma to choose her personal Int vs public Interest.

Ethical Issues / Ethical Dilemma / Values

- * Integrity
- * Empathy towards the villagers
- * Personal Interest vs orgⁿal Interest
- * Transparency & Accountability.
- * Corporate Social Responsibility

Arguments

* Right to life: Art 21: SC: Rt. to a clean & livable env².

* Fundamental Duties

{ Business without morality }

Integrity.

* In this case, she needs to prioritise Int of the villagers over her personal Int. { Empathy }

* Moral responsibility { }

Course of Action

